

Parent Engagement for Active Child Enrichment

PEACE is a 501 C (3) nonprofit dedicated to empowering families to engage with their children to prepare them for academic and school success.

The PEACE Team Wishes You A Joyful Holiday Season!

In 2018, PEACE served 700+ parents and children presenting Workshops, Learning Fairs and a Conference collaborating with our partners. We distributed 331 award-winning books, 190 toys (Musical and STEM toys) plus 159 parent tip tools.

Read, Sing, Play and have Fun with Your Children!

PEACE makes a few book and toy recommendations for your holiday gift-giving to children:

Age Range - Infants and Toddlers:

From Head to Toe by Eric Carle (Movement, actions and animals)

Hands Are Not for Hitting by Martine Agassi (best-behavior book series)

Age Range – 3 to 6 years

On Monday When it Rained by Cherryl Kachenmeister (Focusing on emotions with expressive photographs)

The Carrot Seed by Ruth Krauss (Taking on challenges)

Age Range – 6 to 8 years

Caterpillar to Butterfly by Laura Marsh (Science)

A Tree Grows Up by Marfe Ferguson Delano (Science)
National Geographic Kids Readers

We're All Wonders by R. J. Palacio (Diversity and inclusion; Wonder, a Major Motion Picture)

Age Range – 9 to 12 years

Mrs. Frisby, and the Rats of Nimh by Robert C. O'Brien (chapter book)

Be the Change: A Grandfather Gandhi Story by Arun Gandhi (“a notable book for a global society”)

Helen Keller by Kitson Jazynka (a biography)

Blocks Build Brains: Lego blocks and Tinker toys make great toys.
Develop a child’s strategic thinking with the game of chess.

Thank You, Donors.

